

PASSENGER ADVISORY

Dated 23rd March 2020

In order to reduce the stress & anxiety of the passengers who must travel during these trying times and also to facilitate those who want to cancel or postpone the date of travel, Air India has decided to extend following waivers.

(A) Applicable:

(For travel between 23rd March2020 to 30th April 2020): All 098 tickets Domestic & International both Inbound/outbound.

Re-booking /Cancellation of itinerary:

- i. If you are holding a ticket for a flight operating between 23rd March2020 to 30thApril20 20 and you do not wish to travel; you need not visit or call Air India, or your travel agent. You don't even have to report to the airport, for rescheduling your flight till normalcy of operations is restored.
- ii. Air India will waive No-Show charges i.e. your ticket will be protected at full value.
- iii. As and when you finalise the date of your travel (up to 30th September2020), you can reschedule your travel without paying any date change or sector change fee for your travel.
- iv. Free of Charge Change- in Date/Flight/Routing is allowed

Residual Validity of tickets/fare at the time of change	Booking can be made till	Booking RBD / Fare *
Less than 6 months validity	30 th September 2020	Booking in same/higher RBD is allowed. No down selling of Fares/ RBD is allowed. *Any fare difference will be collected.
More than 6 months validity	31 st March 2021	Booking in same/higher RBD is allowed. No down selling of Fares/ RBD is allowed. *Any fare difference will be collected

- In all cases, please retain a copy of the ticket and PNR till you complete your itinerary.
- The above waiver applies for Individual as well as Group travel.
- No rerouting is allowed on other carriers.
- Air India reserves the right to change/withdraw the waiver at any time. The waiver may be amended/extend depending on reassessment of the situation from time to time.