HAND BAGGAGE (CARRY-ON BAGGAGE)

Hand Baggage (Carry-on Baggage) is any baggage of the passenger other than checked baggage carried by the passenger in his custody in the cabin. Unchecked baggage carried on Air India aircraft is restricted to 1 single piece with dimensions not exceeding 55 cms.(22") x40 cms.(16") x 20 cms (8") and weight of 12 Kgs in First & Business Class and 08 kgs in Economy Class.

All hand baggage must be presented at the check-in counter or transfer desk for transfer passenger. Carriage of special items such as sitars, tanpuras and fragile items are normally not permitted as these items can inconvenience other passengers and be a possible hazard in turbulent weather conditions.

Due to security / operational reasons, the requirements may vary at certain stations.

Other items permitted as hand baggage are:

Ladies hand bag, overcoat or wrap, rug or blanket, camera or binoculars, reasonable amount of reading material for the flight, infant's feed / carrying basket if an infant is carried, collapsible wheel chair or pair of crutches or braces for passengers' use if dependent on them, a gift item purchased from airport duty free shop, walking stick, umbrella (folding type), feeding bottle, shaving kit excluding razor blade and straight razor, medicines required during the flight like asthma Inhaler etc., laptops, cell phones.

Hand Baggage Security Regulation:

As per the notice issued by the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS), Government of India, passengers boarding an Air India aircraft will not be allowed to carry in their hand baggage or on person liquids, gels or aerosols which include beverages, shampoo, suntan lotion, creams, tooth paste, hair gels, hair spray, liquid cosmetics or any other items of similar consistency, exceeding 100ml, except medicines, inhalers accompanied by prescriptions and baby food.

These items will be carried in a clear transparent re-sealable one litre size plastic bag and will be subjected to the prescribed screening and security checks.

Duty free items purchased at the airport of departure in India will be permitted for carriage on the aircraft only if they are:

- Carried in uniquely identifiable bags (bearing the name of the Duty Free and the inscription "Duty Free Items") with a cash receipt attached to the bag.
- The Duty Free Shops are responsible for the safety and security screening of Duty Free items purchased by the passenger and will ensure they are delivered to the concerned passenger at the gate of the aircraft.

Power Banks/Batteries spare/loose, including lithium ion cells or batteries, for portable electronic devices must be carried in hand/carry-on baggage only.

If passengers are transferring to another flight at any point on the journey or at destination, or deplaning from the aircraft at a transit point, where they are required to go through security checks once again, duty free liquids, and gels exceeding 100ml and purchased in India will not be permitted. However, items purchased in that country, at the airport of departure will be permitted as per the local laws.

BAGGAGE TIPS

Improper carriage of baggage can put one through a lot of inconvenience. The following tips will be handy.

Make sure you know your free checked baggage / carry-on baggage allowance and latest restrictions on carriage of such items. Any items over your allowance will be charged as excess baggage.

Label your bags correctly with your name and address and remove tags and labels left over from previous flights counters.

Do not carry packages with unidentified contents on behalf of other people. Make sure you carry medication, car/house keys on your person/ hand baggage.

The Carrier is not liable for loss/damage to or delay in the delivery of fragile or perishable articles, money, jewellery, silverware, cameras, electronics/ video/computer or photographic equipment, negotiable papers, securities, heirlooms, antiques, artifacts, work of art, irreplaceable books or publications, manuscripts, business documents, precious metals and other similar valuables or commercial effects. Passengers are advised to carry such items in person or in their carry-on baggage.

If liquids/creams/oils must be carried in checked baggage, they must be packed in waterproof containers or properly secured by plastic bag. Broken glass containers and liquid spills inside a suitcase are not the responsibility of the airline.

In some instances you may be required to identify or claim your baggage, for security or local customs reasons, at the connecting point. Please ascertain in advance if this is required.

BANNED / RESTRICTED ITEMS

Certain items may or may not be permitted to be carried on person / in cabin baggage or in registered baggage while travelling on board our flights.

In view of increased security measures at airports worldwide and in compliance with regulations received from the Government of India, such items may be confiscated and not returned to passengers if found in hand baggage by the security staff at the boarding gate.

DENIED BOARDING, CANCELLATION AND DELAYS IN FLIGHTS

The scale of the facilities to be provided to the passengers by the airline due to denied boarding, cancellation of flight and delays in flight shall be governed by Civil Aviation Requirements (CAR), Section 3- Air Transport, Series 'M' Part IV-Issue I, Dated 6th August, 2010, Rev. 3, dated 27th Feb, 2019, which is as under :

“QUOTE”

3.2 Denied Boarding

3.2.1 When the number of passengers, who have been given confirmed bookings for travel on the flight and who have reported for the flight well within the specified time ahead of the departure of the flight, are more than the number of seats available, an airline must first ask for volunteers to give up their seats so as to make seats available for other booked passengers to travel on the flight, in exchange of such benefits/facilities as the airline, at its own discretion, may wish to offer, provided airports concerned have dedicated check-in facilities/gate areas which make it practical for the airline to do so.

3.2.2 If the boarding is denied due to condition stated at Para 3.2.1 to passengers against their will, the airline shall not be liable for any compensation in case alternate flight is arranged that is scheduled to depart within one hour of the original schedule departure time of the initial reservation. Failing to do so, the airline shall compensate the passengers as per the following provisions:

- a) An amount equal to 200% of booked one-way basic fare plus airline fuel charge, subject to maximum of INR 10,000, in case airline arranges alternate flight that is scheduled to depart within the 24 hours of the booked scheduled departure.

- b) An amount equal to 400% of booked one-way basic fare plus airline fuel charge, subject to maximum of INR 20,000, in case airline arranges alternate flight that is scheduled to depart more than 24 hours of the booked scheduled departure.
- c) In case passenger does not opt for alternate flight, refund of full value of ticket and compensation equal to 400% of booked one-way basic fare plus airline fuel charge, subject to maximum of INR 20,000.

3.2.3 A passenger booked on connecting flights of the same airline or of the other airline, shall be compensated by the airline of the first flight for the first leg in accordance with the provisions of Para 3.2.2 of this CAR, when he has been delayed at the departure station on account of denied boarding, but has arrived at the final destination at least three hours later than the scheduled arrival time.

3.3 Cancellation of Flight

3.3.1 In order to reduce inconvenience caused to the passengers as a result of the cancellations of the flights on which they are booked to travel, airline shall inform the passenger of the cancellation at least two weeks before the scheduled time of departure and arrange alternate flight/refund as acceptable to the passenger.

In case the passengers are informed of the cancellation less than two weeks before and up to 24 hours of the scheduled time of departure, the airline shall offer an alternate flight or refund the ticket, as acceptable to the passenger.

3.3.2 Passengers who have not been informed as per the provisions contained in Para 3.3.1, or missed the connecting flight booked on the same ticket number of an airline, the airlines shall either provide alternate flight as acceptable to the passenger or provide compensation in addition to the full refund of air ticket in accordance with the following provisions:

- a) INR 5,000 or booked one-way basic fare plus airline fuel charge, whichever is less for flights having a block time of up to and including 01 hour
- b) INR 7,500 or booked one-way basic fare plus airline fuel charge, whichever is less for flights having block time of more than 01 hour and up to and including 02 hours.
- c) INR 10,000 or booked one-way basic fare plus airline fuel charge, whichever is less for flights having a block time of more than 02 hours.

Additionally, the airline shall provide them facilities at the airport in accordance with Para 3.7.1 (a) in the event they have already reported for their original flight and whilst they are waiting for the alternate flight.

3.3.3 No financial compensation shall be payable to passengers who have not provided adequate contact information (email id or a phone number) at the time of making booking or when the ticket for firm travel on the selected flight is issued.

Airlines shall require travel agents to provide that information to the airline for operational purposes only. In respect of such passengers the airlines will either refund the ticket prices or make reasonable endeavour to make alternate travel arrangements as per the choice of the passengers. Additionally, in respect of such passengers who elect to travel to their destination on an alternate flight, the airline shall provide them with reasonable facilities during the period that they are required to wait at the airport for the alternate flights in accordance with Para 3.7.1 (a).

3.3.4 No such compensation shall be payable to any of the affected passengers in case the cancellations occur due to extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the airline (as described in Para 1.4 and Para 1.5) even if all reasonable measures had been taken by the airline.

3.3.5 The refund of air ticket shall be made in accordance with CAR Section 3, Series M, Part II.

3.4 Delays in Flight

3.4.1 The airlines shall provide facilities in accordance with Para 3.7.1 (a) if the passenger has checked in on time, and if the airline expects a delay beyond its original announced scheduled time of departure or a revised time of departure. of:

- a) 2 hours or more in case of flights having a block time of up to 2 ½ hrs; or
- b) 3 hours or more in case of flights having a block time of more than 2 ½ hrs and up to 5 hours; or
- c) 4 hours or more in case of flights not falling under sub-para (a) and (b) of Para 3.4.1.

3.4.2 When domestic flight is expected to be delayed for more than 6 hrs from the published scheduled time of departure or previously revised departure time (communicated more than 24 hours prior to original scheduled departure time), airlines shall offer an option of either an alternate flight within a period of 6 hours or full refund of ticket to the passenger.

3.4.3 When total delay is more than 24 hrs from the published scheduled time of departure or more than 6 hrs for flights scheduled to depart between 2000 and 0300 hrs, passenger shall be offered facility in accordance with the provisions of Para 3.7.1 (b) of this CAR.

3.4.4 An operating airline shall not be obliged to adhere to Para 3.7 if the delay is caused due to extra ordinary circumstances as defined in Para 1.4 and Para 1.5 which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken.

3.4.5 The burden of proof concerning the questions as to whether and when the passenger has been informed of the delay of the flight shall rest with the operating airline.

Mode of Compensation

The compensation referred as above shall be paid in Cash (Subject to availability), by bank transfer or with the signed agreement of the passenger in the form of travel vouchers.
